OSCAR HO:

Oscar Ho was formerly the Exhibition Director of the Hong Kong Arts Centre and Founding Director of Museum of Contemporary Art in Shanghai. Since the late 1980s, he has been curating extensively on the contemporary art of Hong Kong, Mainland China and South East Asia. In addition to curating exhibitions in Hong Kong, he has curated numerous exhibitions in Asia, Europe, North America, Australia and New Zealand, including being the guest curator for the 2nd and 3rd Asia Pacific Triennial at Queensland, Australia.

He is the founder of the Hong Kong chapter of the International Art Critics Association, and has written for local as well as international publications (Art Journal, Art in Asia Pacific, Art Forum and Newsweek). He was advisor to documenta 12 and a member of the International Committee for documenta 13, responsible for selecting its artistic director.

He is currently the director of the MA Program in Cultural Management at the Chinese University of Hong Kong, and has been involved with the planning of a new museum at the West Kowloon Cultural District.
